

FLORIDA STATE UNIVERSITY
COLLEGE OF APPLIED STUDIES

Academic Leadership Award

Purpose:

The College of Applied Studies selects two student recipients for the annual Academic Leadership Award. The selection is based on demonstrated academic excellence, university service and other contributions both in and out of the classroom. The selected students are recognized along with other award recipients from each college across the university during an annual ceremony in the spring semester.

Award Criteria:

- Be formally admitted to a College of Applied Studies major
- Have an FSU GPA of 3.0 or higher
- Have a demonstrated record of academic performance, university service and other contributions, both in and out of the classroom

Nomination Process:

Nominations for the College of Applied Studies Academic Leadership Award may be made by faculty and staff of the College. The nomination consists of written responses to the stated questions (provided below), a current resume of the nominee, and documentation of services performed.

Nominations are due to Cristina Doan via email, by noon on January 19, 2024, cdoan@fsu.edu

Nominee Information (please attach additional pages if necessary).

Name of student nominee: _____

Nominee major: _____

Please use the space below or attach a separate letter of support listing this student's accomplishments while enrolled at FSU, extracurricular activities, honors and awards, community, state, and national activities, as well as any other reasons you have nominated this student for the Academic Leadership Award from your College.

List the name of nominator(s), telephone number, email address.